Options Community Services is a non-profit registered charity providing social services primarily in Surrey, Delta, White Rock and Langley. We believe in helping people help themselves. We believe in collaborating with individuals, businesses, community groups and government to create focused, effective and responsive resources for the community.

Transition houses support women and their dependent children who have experienced or are at risk of experiencing abuse, threats or violence, by providing access to safe, secure and confidential services, including information and supports for decision-making, short-term shelter or housing, referrals to other services and links to affordable housing.

The Child & Youth Transition House Worker provides direct support to resident children, co-ordinates and implements children's programs, provides parenting support and information to resident mothers. Can be scheduled or called upon to perform Transition House Worker duties and responsibilities by supervisors, when needed.

ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Monitors and ensures the safety and comfort of children or youth. Reports any problems to the supervisor and responds to emergencies in accordance with established guidelines.
