Whalley Family Resource Program (WFRP) is a preventative drop-in program for young children and their parents and caregivers. The Family Resource Program Coordinator, in cooperation with the Family Resource Support Worker, plans, organizes, implements and evaluates the parent and family programming component of the drop-in to foster and empower families to be successful in the five core areas of FRP service: family support, parent education and learning, early literacy and learning, play-based learning, information and referrals. The Family Resource Program offers a comfortable environment, which promotes socializing and sharing of experiences, information and ideas.

KEY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develops, maintains and delivers a healthy Family Resource Program in the five core areas of service following FRP Valued Practices, FRP and community development principles and FRP Standards of Practices, including the health and safety of the facility and equipment, in cooperation with the Family Resource Support Worker.
- Promotes Family Development by designing and implementing curriculum for parent education including parent-child attachment and self-regulation. Maintains and builds a collaborative family-centered capacity-building model that supports families to address their needs.
- Fosters a calm and nurturing environment designed to encourage cooperative, independent and social play to develop healthy self-regulation through a daily schedule that includes indoor / outdoor, active / quiet, individual / group activities and cultural diversity in cooperation with the Family Resource Support Worker. Requests input from and participation of parents in the development of program.
- In consultation with the Family Resource Program Manager, participates in regular program evaluation in co-operation with the staff, families and community stakeholders as required.
- Maintains a working knowledge of parenting services, community services, resource persons and a wide range of parenting issues and initiatives, and dispenses this information for service providers, families and the community.

- Provides program tours to new participants and orients them to the parent-participation model of parent-child interaction drop-in programs. Promotes engagement and builds relationships with first-time and regular FRP participants.
- Maintains professional growth and stays current on related trends. Manages time, meets deadlines and prioritizes task effectively.
- Liaises with community service providers and professionals to coordinate service provision, facilitates referrals to the program and represents the agency at external events.
- Recognizes, documents, and takes appropriate action in case of suspected abuse, illness, or accident following the Child Abuse Protocol and General Safety Guidelines.
